

A collage of various photographs featuring a young woman with blonde hair, identified as Eden Metz. The photos show her in different contexts: as a cheerleader in a red and black uniform, as a track athlete in a red singlet with 'HORLICK' on it, in formal wear at a prom or wedding, and in casual settings with friends. A large, close-up portrait of her face is on the right side. The name 'Eden Metz' is written in large white letters across the top center of the collage.
